

Lead and Copper Rule Compliance:

The City of Ranger has completed its Lead Service Line Inventory in accordance with TCEQ and EPA requirements. Based on available records and inspections, no service lines made of lead or galvanized materials requiring replacement have been identified. A small number of service lines are classified as "lead status unknown", and the City will continue verifying these as part of its ongoing system monitoring and compliance efforts.